1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to consider the general wellbeing, health and safety of all members, staff, and volunteers of The Junction. Our Animals in the Workplace Policy clearly outlines our requirements and relevant government legislation related to Guide, Hearing and Assistance Dogs Act 2009.

We want to ensure that animals won't disrupt our operations, damage properties, or cause medical issues or risks to other employees, members, and visitors. We expect everyone to understand and comply with this policy.

3. Policy Statement

The Junction is committed to creating a safe and welcoming environment for all to enjoy. ## 4. Procedures

These procedures should always be followed for any persons who attend The Junction and wish to enter with their animal and/or pet.

Animals in the Workplace

Entry to The Junction cannot be allowed under any circumstances if the required procedures have not been followed.

The Junction staff must always advise the person of these procedures to follow:

- They must phone and make an appointment to have a meeting with the Director of Operations prior to any visit with their animal
- The Director of Operations will undertake a risk assessment on the animal before any entry to The Junction is allowed
- The owner must present current documentation of their Handler's Identity Card for guide dog, hearing, or assistant dog (consistent with the Australian Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act 1992)
- Provide proof that their pets are clean, properly vaccinated and free of parasites
- The Director of Operations will advise all staff of the final decision

Consistent with the Australian Commonwealth Disability Discrimination Act 1992, The Junction requires applicants to provide evidence that their dog is trained to assist a person with a disability to alleviate the effect of the disability and meets standards of hygiene and behaviour that are appropriate for an animal in a public place.
